

Australasian Numismatic Dealers Association Inc.

Code of Ethics

As a Member of the Australasian Numismatic Dealers Association Inc.,
I pledge to observe the following Code of Ethics:

I will promote, develop, and maintain a high standard of moral ethics in all my business dealings.

I will, by deed and example, endeavour to promote mutual trust and friendship between Members of the Association and between Members and the public.

I will avoid misrepresentation and misleading advertising.

I will purchase numismatic and/or philatelic items from the public at reasonable prices with due allowance for prevailing market conditions.

I will advise my clientele in all collectables matters to the best of my ability.

I will refrain from dealing in stolen and counterfeit material and give buyers of repaired or altered material a complete written statement showing in detail the nature of the changes and alterations in such material upon request.

I will immediately refund on any item sold by me where the description was either inaccurate or misleading, within a reasonable period of time after the transaction.

In the event of any dispute arising between any customer and myself or with any other Member of the Association I agree to abide by any ruling in connection with such dispute as shall be given by the Executive Committee for the time being of the Association.

I will refrain from criticising fellow Member dealers or their stocks to collectors and purchasers.

I will accurately grade merchandise, giving cognisance to the fact that grading is subjective and a matter of personal opinion, yet utilize recognized industry guidelines.

I will support and be subject to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Australasian Numismatic Dealers Association Inc. and such amendments, resolutions and policies as may be established.
